

ANNEXURE

REVISED COURSES AS APPROVED ON 21 MAY 2002 BY THE BOARD OF STUDIES (POST GRADUATE) IN HISTORY

The revised courses for M. A. (History) mentioned below are recommended for introduction from academic session 2002-3, beginning July 2002.

Each student will be required to successfully complete 12 (twelve) courses with a total of 1200 marks in order to be eligible for the award of the M.A. degree. The student shall study 2 (two) compulsory courses and 1 (one) optional/specialisation course in each of the first two semesters. During the third and fourth semesters the student shall study 1 (one) compulsory course and 2 (two) optional/specialisation courses per semester.

The student will be expected to specialise in one of the three streams of ancient, medieval or modern Indian history. For this purpose, the student shall choose any one of these three streams and shall continue to study courses of the same specialisation through all subsequent semesters.

Wherever the provision for options in courses exists in a semester, the Departmental Council of the Department of History would periodically decide the options that are to be offered at the postgraduate centre in each semester.

Each of the courses mentioned below will be of 100 marks each. Maximum marks for the M.A. degree is 1200.
