NOTIFICATION

A meeting under the Chairmanship of Dean of studies was held on 09-12-2015 to discuss and decide the matter pertaining to the 2nd round of B.Ed. counseling. The contents of the decision taken and confirmed by the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor are as under:-

1. The Committee considered and took decision on the following points:-

The students who will be admitted in the month of December, 2015 in B.Ed. course will have the following options.

- (i) They should be admitted in the second semester directly and have to complete their semester-I after the completion of semester-IV. As per the existing rules of the University.
- (ii) Alternately, they can be admitted as per the Annual system of examination. The Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor will permit the Department of Education to modify its syllabus and its admission procedure from the concerned academic bodies i.e. Departmental Council, Board of Studies, Faculty of Education and Academic Council etc. The Vice-Chancellor will accord the above permission by using his special powers which were vested with under Act 12-C (7).
- (iii) These options are available to the private colleges. They are advised to inform the University about the option being adopted by them within a period of fifteen days.

Therefore, all the Principals of the B.Ed. colleges affiliation to this University are directed to take further action in accordance with the aforesaid directions upto 23rd December, 2015 positively.
