

Library

The Centre has an excellent collection of about 900 books on Australian Literature and some reference books generously contributed by publishers, booksellers from Australia and individuals like Bruce Bennet, Dennis Haskell, Ken Harper, Kirsty Murray, Keri Glastonbury, Robyn Friend and Australia-India Council. Out of these around 800 books were gifted by Ken Harper and Kirsty Murray which also included collections from friends, publishers, booksellers, universities, etc. and which were mailed to the Centre with the generous help of Australia-India Council.

In 2011 , 35 books were gifted by Sylvie Haisman to the Centre's Library, which include books on New Zealand as well.
